

Cheese factory manager

Introduction

World Partners is co-operating with a dairy farm in central Asia. The project is in a Central Asian country of incredible natural beauty and proud nomadic traditions. The country is landlocked and mountainous. Although the country is still poor there are many initiatives that contribute to development. The dairy farm has been started 10 years ago by a local entrepreneur to develop the dairy sector in his region. The 80-cow farm is located near the capital. Currently the farm is running well under the supervision of a Dutch dairy expert. Our plan is to set up a cheese making unit, making use of the milk coming from the dairy farm and farms in the region. For this cheese making unit we are looking for a manager who wants to work at least one year on the farm to set up and manage the cheese making process.

Who are we?

World Partners is an organization that is involved in initiating and supporting businesses worldwide. We believe that businesses provide great opportunities for a holistic development. A business provides people with an income and a meaningful life. Also through the business and with the profit of the business social activities can be initiated.

Job description

We are looking for a manager who wants to be involved in managing the cheese making process. This will include:

- Overseeing the whole cheese-making process
- Managing quality of the process
- Leading a team of 2-3 local staff members
- Co-operating with local milk producers

The job is for at least one year, but can be for a longer period. You will live and work near the capital.

Requirements

Managing a business in a foreign country requires independence, vision, initiative and hard work. World Partners will support you and the unit to make it a successful initiative. We expect the following skills/knowledge:

- You have study/work background in business and/or international development
- You are flexible, cultural sensitive and independent
- You speak English at a good level
- Speaking Russian is an advantage

What can you expect from us?

You will be trained in the Netherlands on cheese making and doing business in an international environment. You will be coached and supervised by business experts from the Netherlands. Your salary will be partly from the business and partly from donors.
