

Entrepreneur for poultry business, Central Asia

Project description

In cooperation with a successful poultry farm in Central Asia, we want to start new poultry companies in Central Asia. The company has been involved in the establishment of more than 500 small chicken farms in central Asia over the past 6 years. The chicken company uses a Micro-Franchise concept. In this concept farmers are trained in a working business model and equipped to start small chicken farms ranging from 100 to 5000 egg-laying chickens per farm.

The main activities of the company are:

- Providing training in rearing chickens and running a small company
- Establishing micro-enterprises
- Developing, producing and selling high quality feed
- Selling young chickens and equipment

Job description

We are looking for an entrepreneur who wants to be involved in starting up new the poultry business activities in Central Asia or manage current farms. You will be part of a small team of entrepreneurs. and will initiate and manage several agricultural businesses activities. You will be based in Central Asia for a longer period.

This position entails:

- Being involved in starting the company
- Managing (one of) the departments of the company
- Training department
- Feed, egg and pullet production
- Supervising a team of laborers who work on the farm

About us

Globally, the aim of TGS Business & development initiatives is to "Empower people to bring life and health to their environment." We have the vision that good poultry companies can help local farmers to support their families and serve their community with producing a high quality food products. The chicken companies have a holistic approach to development. This means that not only economic development is aimed for, but that also non-tangible progress is taken into account. You will be part of a small team of entrepreneurs that will start and manage the (new) poultry company.

Requirements

For this job we are looking for something with a background in the poultry sector. We are looking for someone who is persistent and willing to put all his/her efforts in starting up a business that aims at really impacting communities. This requires independence, vision, initiative and hard work. The job is for at least two years, but can be for a longer period. Due to the corporate identity of our partners we are looking for someone with a positive Christian life view.

Payment

In the long run the aim is to pay you a full salary from the company. However, as the company is in its startup/growth phase there is not a full salary available yet. Therefore the first two years you will live from donations. Slowly your salary from the company will grow up to a full salary.

Contact us

Interested and/or want to know more? Please send an e-mail with your motivation and a cv to info@tgrantsservices.com